

CHURCH EXPANSION STARTED . . . Breaking ground for a new educational unit on the site occupied for many years by the parsonage were officials of Central Evangelical United Brethren Church who gathered for the ceremonies after Sunday's worship service. Rev. Walter M. Stanton (top left) is joined by Rev. Wendell Jones, youth pastor; Dr. O. E. Schafer, conference superintendent; and

Pastor Pleased At Rally Gains

"We are greatly pleased with our Sunday School rally month," Rev. Vincent Irwin, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, said this week.

"The Sunday School has shown a great increase, and we are now striving for a regular attendance of 250 pupils," he added.

Sunday School at the church, 23601 S. Main St., begins at 9:30 a.m. and worship services at 11. Evening services begin at 7:30.

The Rev. Mr. Irwin will speak on the "Olivet Discourses" at the 11 a.m. services Sunday and on "The True Gospel" at the evening service.

The teenagers of the church will meet with Mrs. Irwin at 6:45 p.m. Sunday, the pastor reports. About 40 youths normally attend the meetings.

In Los Angeles the week will officially open with a Mass Sunday, 10 a.m., at St. Vibiana Cathedral under sponsorship of the CYO Federation of Single Adult Clubs.

Rev. Dehn Enrolls in Seminary

The Rev. Robert Dehn of 23727 Lucille Ave., Torrance, has just enrolled as a student at California Baptist Theological Seminary at Covina, Calif. Mr. Dehn is the minister of visitation at First Baptist Church of Torrance.

Fellow students of Mr. Dehn this fall come from states touching every border and from lands as distant as Japan, New Zealand, and South Africa.

Youngest of the officially approved American Baptist Convention seminaries, this school chosen by Mr. Dehn has already supplied a fourth of the men now ministering to American Baptist churches in Southern California. Its alumni fill pulpits across the nation and work in foreign mission fields.

The seminary's campus occupies 37 hilltop acres in the Covina Knolls. A newly elected president, Dr. C. Adrian Heaton, for twelve years director of the School of Religious Education of The Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Philadelphia, along with several newly appointed faculty members of high scholarly attainments of former Mr. Dehn and his fellow students the strongest faculty in the institution's history.

At the 11 a.m. worship service Sunday, Oct. 25, Rev. Leonard L. Pisel will be speaking, with special music by the choir under the direction of Mrs. Jean Elmore, choir leader. BYF groups for all ages at 8:30 p.m. and the evening service is at 7:30 p.m. A nursery is provided for small children.

Pastor Tells Women Need For Missions

On Tuesday evening, Oct. 13, the Women's Christian Service Guild of the Lutheran Church of the Resurrection, heard their pastor, Marvin Rygh, speak on the more subtle and refined side of evangelism.

Not minimizing the importance and need of support in the foreign mission fields, Pastor Rygh emphasized the vital responsibility of Christians in witnessing, in friendship, and in invitation, to members of their own church, neighborhood and community.

"Great and moving beliefs cannot be contained in a vacuum or ignored. They must motivate us to some action or service. In short our real beliefs are the ones we do something about. In light of this and the response to the church's organized program of evangelism, it would seem to question whether we really believe in evangelism," he said.

Mrs. Rygh, Bible study leader, gave for study and thought, Ephesians 6, which tells of putting on "The Whole Armor of God." Pastor and Mrs. John Lundering who came to Resurrection Lutheran last July, honored the group with special music.

The newly-elected officers for the Guild will be installed in December.

Lesson-Sermon For Sunday on 'Immortality'

"Depart from evil, and do good; and dwell for evermore." This Golden Text from the 37th Psalm (27), keynotes the Lesson-Sermon to be read in all Christian Science churches Sunday on the subject "Probation After Death."

This view of probation is also shared by the Apostle Paul, who said in I Corinthians (15:56-58), "The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord."

A correlative passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy reads, "The great spiritual fact must be brought out that man is, not SHALL BE, perfect and immortal. We must hold forever the consciousness of existence, and sooner or later, through Christ and Christian Science, we must master sin and death" (p. 428).

BETH EL SLATES CHILDREN'S RITE

Children's services will be held at 7:30 p.m. Friday at Temple Beth El, 1435 W. 7th St., San Pedro. This service will mark the celebration of the Jewish holidays of Shmini Atzeres and Simchas Torah which are observed on Oct. 23 and Oct. 24. These joyous and happy holidays are characterized by dancing and singing and procession of the Torah and Torah flags through the Temple.

Rabbi Leonard A. Helman will deliver a sermonette. Following the service, refreshments will be served by the Religious School room mothers.

Weekly Science Radio Programs Start Sunday

The Christian Science Church will present its weekly program, "How Christian Science Heals," commencing Sunday, Oct. 25, at 1:45 p.m. over Radio Station KRKD, Los Angeles. The series shows the healing, redeeming and transforming power of prayer as instance of authentic and lasting healing are given. Those relating their experiences are the individuals who actually experienced the healings and regenerations, and are never substituted for by others. Complete integrity and sincerity key the programs.

The program is also presented over Radio Station KFI on Sunday mornings at 7:45.

Dr. Jones Announces Next Topic

"This Is Our Church" is the subject chosen by Dr. R. Murray Jones for his sermon on Sunday at the First Presbyterian Church of Gardena, 1957 Redondo Beach Blvd. Worship service is held at 11 a.m. each Sunday. The Junior and Crusader choirs will sing this Sunday. Nursery care is provided.

Registration for all junior choirs must close on Oct. 31st due to the heavy program and the need for the members to know the songs well.
